SIMPLE FUNERAL FOR MRS. WILSON

Only Family and Few Personal Friends to Accompany Body to Rome, Ga.

DEPARTMENTS TO CLOSE

Special Train Bearing Funeral Party Will Leave Washington at 4:35 Tomorrow Afternoon.

That the funeral of Mrs. Wilson, wife of the President, is to be of a private character was emphasized in information. that came from the White House yesterday. It was made known that the President does not expect a large numher of persons to be present at the simple services to be held in the East Room, but that preporation will be made only

There will be no honorary pallbearers. The casket will be taken from the East No Official Party.

The special train bearing the body of Mrs. Wilson will leave for Rome, Ga., and the burial will take place at Rome shortly after 2 o'clock the next day. The Cabmont: Martin, Virginia; Jones, Washafter 2 o'clock the next day. The Cab-inet will not go to Rome as an official body, but it is understood that most of the members plan to attend the burial as personal friends of the President. The government departments and all government buildings in Washington will closed at 1 o'clock tomorrow for the funeral services, and at the same hour Tuesday while the burial services are being conducted at Rome. President Wilson was about the White House yesterday attired in a white linen suit, with a band of crepe about his arm. He went to the Executive Offices to sign papers of importance. It is the plan of the President's advisers that he shall plunge vigorously into the mass of accumulated work which will await him on his return from Rome. On Thursday be will confer with the Federal Reserve Board. On Friday he expects to have a conference with administration officials with regards to plans for getting the cotton crop to market and lina; Candler, of Mississippl; Hughes, of with advisers of the administration on the West Virginia; Burke, of South Dakota; outlook for the conclusion of the legisla-tive program in Congress.

To Confer Friday.

Friday afternoon he will confer with the representatives of the shipping inter-ests, who have been called to the Treasury Department for a conference on that on the problem of moving the grain and cotton crops to European markets, and it is understood will make an im-portant speech to these representatives
